Chaparral Artists leaves Roadside Attraction Gallery

Recently Acclaim Insurance was sold and moved from the front of the building where Roadside Attraction Gallery is located. A new tenant will be moving in and they will occupy the whole building so Chaparral Artists will be leaving.

Chaparral Artists "Reflections" Show will be the last one until we find a new venue.

If you have a space where you would like to display artwork by local artists and possibly have monthly receptions take place please send an email to ChaparralArtists@gmail.com.

For all members who have artwork on sale and on display you need to pick up your items on either Thursday, December 12, 4:00 – 6:00 p.m. or Friday, December 13, 10:30 a.m. – noon.

Volunteers will be needed to help take down our hanging system and remove items from the gallery. You will be able to sign up at our regular monthly meeting on December 9.

I want to personally thank Electra and Richard Westmann who has graciously allowed Chaparral Artists to use the gallery free of charge for the last few years.

President's Palette Jan Melchert

The end of my term as President is drawing near, and we still don't have a President. This will be my last President's Palette. My mind is willing to continue, but alas my body isn't, and that is the long and short of it. It was fun and interesting; and challenging. I do wish that a member or several members would step forward and give it a try. It is your chance to get involved with the direction of the club as you envision the club should be. I am looking forward to getting back into art, both painting and textile art. I have literally done nothing in the way of producing art since I became president and I miss it terribly, but there is so much my body will do, it lacks the stamina to do both. It was either club responsibilities or producing art, and naturally the club came first. I feel very privileged for the opportunity to get to know the members in our group. You all are wonderful and very talented individuals.

Chaparral Artists Officers

Chaparral Artists has elected our new officers for 2014. Nancy Miehle is once again taking on the job of treasurer and Sonja Arnel will be our new secretary. Our current secretary, Shirley James, will still manage our Facebook page and our Fine Art America accounts.

Now for the bad news.

Despite the best efforts by the Board of Directors we were unable to find anyone who would like to be either president or vice-president of Chaparral Artists. Over the last few years we have taken several duties of the president and vice-president and reassigned them to other people or committees. So now each position takes up a lot less time than they used to.

Here are brief descriptions of the positions that we still need to fill. Please take the time to read and think whether you would be a good fit for either job.

President: Oversees the Chaparral Artists organization as a whole, presides at all meetings, locates art demonstrators and arranges for general meeting demonstrations/presentations.

Editor – Until Chaparral Artists gets a new venue; the following doesn't apply. The president is responsible for arranging for a judge at Chaparral judged art shows, schedules monthly art shows and selects the theme.

Vice President: In the absence of the President or in the event of his/her inability or refusal to act, performs the duties of the President, assists the President in his/her duties and performs duties as may be assigned to him/her by the Board, and is responsible for planning the monthly outings as appropriate.

By the way, some people have asked why I don't run for one of the offices. First I can't run for president since I served my two years just before Jan became president. My position as editor and news correspondent of the newsletter takes up a large portion of my time and after being ill for the last year I need to spend more time working on my business and I don't think I could take on another task at this time.

Joshua Tree National Park Art Show & Faire

Vickie Waite

On December 6, 7 and 8, 2013, Twentynine Palms, CA, will host the first Joshua Tree National Park Art Show & Faire, a three-day celebration of art and music at the historic Oasis of Mara. Festivities include a juried art show with an opening reception, awards, and a weekend art faire with artists' booths, art demonstrations, cultural displays, park history presentations, youth art activities, live music, food and beverages.

Fifty artists from California, across the nation, and as far away as England, have been selected for the juried art show and will be competing for $6,000 in awards for their artwork inspired by the unique natural beauty and cultural history of Joshua Tree National Park, which has attracted artists and nature lovers from all over the world for more than 75 years. The art show opens at noon on Friday, Dec. 6, at the 29 Palms Art Gallery, with an opening reception set for 5 to 8 p.m.

On Saturday and Sunday, Dec. 7 and 8, all five venues at the Oasis of Mara will host the festivities, from Joshua Tree National Park Headquarters and Oasis Visitor Center on the east end to the 29 Palms Art Gallery, 29 Palms Inn, Old Schoolhouse Museum, and finally the 29 Palms Creative Center & Gallery on the west end of the oasis. Admission is free, and all event venues are within walking distance at the oasis.

The art faire will start with a nature walk at 9 a.m. both Saturday and Sunday, followed by artists' booths, demonstrations, music and activities from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. on Saturday and 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. on Sunday. A festive Art Celebration at the 29 Palms Inn on Saturday night begins at 5 p.m.

Editor – Among the artists in the art show are Chaparral

Artists members Raini Armstrong, Chuck Caplinger, Bill Dahl, Shirley James, Deane Locke, Sandra Lytch, Darlene Morris, Tami Roleff, Margie Trandem, Nichole Vikdal, and Honorary Member Anne Lear.

Hospitality ladies retire

For several years four unique ladies have been mainly responsible for setting up the buffet and decorating the tables for Chaparral Artists monthly meetings. Guila Gilmore has been the chairman of the committee and the other committee members are June Fingler, Lois Morrow and Daisy Pirot.

Over the years others have helped but these four ladies have stayed for the long haul. Now they have stepped down and opened the door for others to do the work.

In February 2012 Chaparral Artists presented Guila with a plaque and a lifetime membership. This November June, Lois, and Daisy were each given their own plaques and lifetime memberships.

THANK YOU LADIES FOR ALL THAT YOU HAVE DONE!

Student Art Shows in December

The Glass Outhouse Gallery will be the location of two student art shows in December. If you want to support our young artists these are the shows you should attend. All of the artwork will be for sale with 100% of the proceeds going to the artists.

The first show will feature Copper Mountain College Students. The show opens with a reception on Saturday, November 30 which will run from 1 – 5 p.m. The show ends on December 6.

The second show will feature 29 Palms High School and Yucca Valley High School students as well as home schooled high school students from the Morongo Basin.

Homeschooled students can drop off their work on December 7 between 9 and 5. The reception will be on Sunday, December 8 from 1 – 5 p.m. and the show runs from December 8 to December 15.

Everyone is invited and encouraged to attend both receptions. There will be refreshments and music at each event.

The Glass Outhouse is located at 77575 Hwy 62 & Thunder Road in Wonder Valley. It is 3 ½ miles east of Utah Trail on the right hand side of the highway.

Christmas Party

It seems like this year has flown by and now it's time for our annual Christmas Party.

We will be having a potluck as well as a couple of contests and a silent auction.

The contests will be the annual handmade Christmas card and Christmas ornament contests. Each entrant is limited to one entry in each category. Winners will receive cash awards so let's see how many creative entries we receive.

The silent auction will be the ever popular Pig in a Poke. For those of you not familiar with

Odds & Ends

The Desert Arts Center in Palm Springs will feature Chaparral Artists members

Shirley James & Barbara Matheny in January.

When I retired in January 2009 my friend Nancy Peckenpaugh took me to Mitchell Caverns. This was the first of our many photo trips.

In January 2011 Mitchell Caverns closed for repairs and has remained closed up until now. For those of you who would like to see the caverns; work is continuing on fixing and updating the systems at Mitchell Caverns for a possible re-opening of the park by the end of the year.

You should check to make sure the caverns have reopened before planning a trip there.

APOLOGY – Last month I attributed a necklace in the Art Tour Collective Show at 29 Palms Gallery to Georgia Toney. It was actually Toni Callaway who crafted the necklace.

Toni Callaway's necklace

George Catlin's American Buffalo exhibits forty paintings dating from 1832 to 1848 from the artist's original "Indian Gallery." at the Palm Springs Art Museum. The exhibition includes eleven full-length portraits of Plains Indians and twenty-nine paintings of his observation of buffalo and their integration into all aspects of Native American life. These paintings are from the permanent collection of the Smithsonian American Art Museum and will be on display at the Palm Springs Art Museum until December 29.

Kelso Depot – After more than four years in operation, the Beanery Lunch Counter at Kelso Depot Visitor Center is closed.
